

Scott B. Frenkel

PERSONAL INJURY TRIAL LAW

Vanessa Gavalya

Scott Frenkel and his brother, Mark, formed Frenkel & Frenkel after they left their careers of representing insurance companies, an experience they feel has been instrumental in the representation of their clients.

The firm handles a wide range of serious cases including 18-wheeler incidents, automobile product liability, nursing home negligence cases, and pharmaceutical errors. “Bad things sometimes happen to good people, and that is when we are at our best.”

Frenkel currently litigates catastrophic injuries throughout Texas, New Mexico, and Missouri. Nationally, the firm has been at the forefront of Fen-Phen litigation. The firm also has a consumer law section which handles automobile dealership fraud and abusive debt collector matters.

One thing that makes Frenkel & Frenkel different is the personal interaction between the attorneys and their clients. “I need to get to know what my clients’ days are like—what impact an incident has had on their lives. If you don’t empathize and understand that, how can you effectively relate the case to the jury? You can’t.”

Frenkel is a sustaining member of the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, and he was inducted into the Million Dollar Advocates Forum, which is reserved for lawyers who have achieved results of more than $1 million per case. He was previously selected by his peers in D Magazine’s Best Lawyers Under 40.
