With a continued mission of "Representing People; Helping People," firm partners Ralph C. "Red Dog" Jones and Laura Benitez Geisler take pride in having represented hundreds of individuals and families in personal injury and civil trial cases throughout Texas. Their primary focus is to obtain compensation for their clients who have suffered damages as a result of another's negligence or wrongdoing. They share a zealous passion for what is right and just. Genuine concern for their clients' well-being is evident, whether they are in front of a judge and jury in court or at the negotiating table.

Not only do Jones and Geisler fight for proper recoveries for their clients' losses, they also work hard to bring about change so that future tragedies can be avoided. They carefully guide clients through the complex process of seeking and securing justice in personal injury cases involving wrongful death, catastrophic injuries, and economic losses.

Both lawyers are graduates of SMU School of Law and have repeatedly been named among the Best Lawyers in Dallas in D Magazine as well as Super Lawyers in Texas Monthly. Jones is past president of the Dallas Bar Association and is board certified in Civil Trial and Personal Injury Law. Geisler is president of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers and past president of the Dallas Women Lawyers Association.
